The Grey Agenda

The Greys made contact with a world governmental body for the first time in 1933 in Germany. However, they were turned away by the German government because it had already committed itself to involvement with the Giza intelligence. A renegade group of human extra terrestrials that were headquartered under the Giza plateau in Egypt. They were predominantly Pleadians. They were on their own, doing their own thing. Ashtar, Commigal, and even Jehovah were a part of the group, for some time. They came down here and played God with us. People worshipped them because they had technology which they used as their power, big time.

Giza Intervention

During the 1930's, the Germans were building rockets and starting a space program due to their contacts with the extraterrestrials of the Giza intelligence. The technology developed however, was used to create weapons because the German governmental body involved were concerned that there was going to be an alien invasion. The Giza intelligence had told them that the Greys were here to invade, but this actually did not occur. Plans for weapons such as sound devices, lasers, neutron bombs, particle beam weapons, etc. were designed. Although many of these weapons were not created until much later in history, a lot of other technology was shared with the Germans, by the Giza Intelligence, like how to do: anti-gravity, free energy, etc.

U.S. Involvement

The United States was the first to open its doors to the alien race known as the Greys. I have been told of only one contact in 1934, where the Greys made their presence known to the U.S. government, in the state of Washington. I don't know the particular details but somehow the government knew that the Greys were there. It wasn't until 1947, that actual contact occurred with the aliens and United States officials. The first face to face contact was due to the shooting down of an alien craft, namely the Roswell incident. This pressed the Greys into a contact earlier than they had actually anticipated doing themselves. After the crash in Roswell, the United States, the Soviet Union, and the British, at the very highest levels, became blood brothers. By the way, none of these governments knew what Germany was really up to. The Germans were very, very secretive about their contact with the Giza Intelligence.

The Roswell incident created more of an urgency to develop a true space program to defend the earth. The United States and the Soviet governments thought that this alien presence could be a threat, because these aliens were so technologically more advanced. But the Greys, in their own fashion, really back-doored these governments

Consistency*Leadership Empowerment

As a planetary race it is imperative that we work together in harmony while preparing to embark upon the next stage of our combined experience in this new year. We must show by our actions what it truly means to account for our own behavior and acts which must clearly demonstrate both our individual and combined intentions. Now is the time when others must recognize our inalienable right to determine our own course of evolution by exercising our rights through the fundamental axiom of free will and sovereign self determination of choice.

My friends, when I sat down and wrote "The Call To Action" these ideals were on my mind: Without self-confident determination and responsibility we will not achieve what is our combined destiny this life time; to genuinely be sincere and sure of oneself, not under the power or control of others; to be independent and not burdened by obligation or confined by rules, conditions, or reservations, yet being absolute, and in account of one's behavior and actions with-

Letter From The Editor

The Isness gives all of us the gifts of love, physicality, and gifts of talent. These gifts are only a few of many pillars in which we build the foundations of life and its experiences. The building of these pillars begins at birth, and over the years the foundation strengthens, mending the hurts and pains. Our souls have been weakened by a lack of respect. Realize that the quickness and strength of healing does depend on our perception, and on our confidence and ability to interact with ones own life. As Moraney has taught me, we must strive to remain sensitive and to fulfill our commitments, and always honor our word. We must build our character and strength to overcome our disappointments, because storms of the soul can destroy our foundation of self-reliance and freedom. The storms will also weaken our minds.

From birth to death, these storms are constantly tearing down the foundation of the soul. That same soul can't build the strength to stand against adversity and tyranny. The major cities are full of these kinds of people. The cities are the eye of the storm. So many are stuck in their personality to never change.

We as a race can learn knowledge without wisdom. It's time to prepare yourself by going into silence. "Truth within us is silent." Moraney once said. He added, "On your world, conditioning is the voice so often spoken. It is not by the words or thoughts that are spoken that reveal to us the soul. In our perception it is mans silence that we come to know him best. Human beings on your world become blind if they continue to walk as the shadow of their own enlightenment. Your race is so lonely. Your loneliness, as we perceive, is a lack of responding to your environment. In all things the Law of Consistency creates balance. Remember your intent, whether honorable or fraudulent; truly your acts must justify your actions. Alex, no thing of importance or living essence can be created unless there is intent. We refer to this as pre-existing. These things become reality in your world, with the ingredient of time. Tell you race to seek the honorable in themselves, and not the wrong in others. Be at one." (April 23, 1987).

One night I fell asleep in the grass behind my home in Malibu. I awoke suddenly to find Moraney sitting next to me. I'll never forget his words to me. He just spoke them, stood up and walked into the blue light, and left. Here's what he said, "We have become aware that a great majority of your races are unaware of philosophy and logic, understanding and knowledge of their soul. We observe many Terrans seeing and feeling what others told them or spoken, whom it appears were taught by former Terrans. Has your race lost the self-awareness of your own discovery?" Are the Andromedans right? Do we really want to remember how incredible we really are?

Friends, please respect each other. Be at one.

Publishers Notes

Our thoughts and wishes go out to all of you, in what is sure to be an exciting new year. Our Letters From Andromeda is now officially one years old. Alex, Carla, Debbi, and myself can proudly look back and say that it has been a wonderful experience full of unusual challenges to bring to print, the messages of truth and common sense as shared by our Andromedan friends. For from the Andromedan Perspective we shall remember how to put into action our separate, yet combined acts, of self-determination and self-responsibility through Leadership.

Recently we received correspondence that stated, "Sometimes it appears that you don't have adequate information to fill your 8 pages. The potent way in which Alex presented his material in "Nexus" should be the way you present your material. We need more specific information from Moraney and Vasais. Why are you not giving it? You need to be less sentimental and more concentrated, serious; or else give this important work to someone who is! Time is very short! Don't you realize this?"

Letters From Andromeda strives to bring to you Andromedan information in as timely a fashion as our personal lives allow. And that includes the Andromedan's lives too! Though all of us involved would like to be able to bring you information as readily as channeled information is brought forward, Alex being a contactee, does not have the luxury of on the spot contact.

Indeed, at times the probability of coming events may seem very dire, but if you are truly listening to the Andromedan messages, then you would instinctively know that our own Terran responsibility at this point in time, is of maximum importance to our outcome. We must each in our own way, say thanks to the Andromedans for having chosen to share with us their perspectives, based on our historic and current realities. With this information we can draw upon our thoughts towards the enlightenment of ourselves in relation to our immediate future. My friends, they are not here to be our saviors! Each of our races have both common, as well as, separate goals to accomplish. Now this may slap some in the face, but the truth is...they do not have any obligation to work with us. They choose freely to do so, and for that, we welcome them to stand beside us, as our equals.

So you see, this newsletter is not designed to be a workshop lecture as "The Leading Edge/Nexus" article (Dallas Video) originally was. Information given to us by our Andromedan friends for release is not held back. Often we find it necessary to include some older material, that supports previously released material for it brings forth additional emphasis on issues of great importance. At times Alex and I contribute articles. This is done to share additional information and to motivate by example what it means to be a self determined and responsible leader. If this is not clearly understood by now, stop reading Letters From Andromeda; it's not what you're looking for.

[Note: To our Earth Today Friends: When the Procyon liberation information is shared with us by the Procyons or the Andromedans directly, rest assured it will then be printed.]

As you no doubt have noticed, this newsletter is a double issue, covering both our "96" year end and "97" beginning. While we have no new information to share at this point, please find Alex's article on "The Grey Agenda" loaded full of important information. The second half of the newsletter, is an undertaking I elected to contribute which took on a life of its own during its conception. All I wish to say about it is that each of us must take a critical look at all sources of information (this newsletter included) and determine for ourselves what we will believe is truth. In these coming times, you owe it to yourself to be truly responsible.

For those of you who seek additional information, check out our new revised order form. Gone are the audio tapes...but we have some new video tapes and we are extremely proud to announce the arrival of the book you have all been asking for, Defending Sacred Ground: The Andromedan Compendium.

This long awaited book was painstakingly and lovingly edited by our good friend, Valdamar Valerian of The Leading Edge Research Group. Defending Sacred Ground takes in most of the information presented from the audio and video tapes, including special Leading Edge interviews. You will find the format of this book, very precise as only "Val" knows how to do it. Please take note that the index section is suburb! It will help you quickly navigate through the book to specific information that you desire to know or refresh up on. We can not thank Val enough for what he has accomplished for Alex and the Andromedans.

Within these pages you may go forward and confront the new and reconfirm the familiar, for all is truth and can only lead you to balance and enlightenment. Once you have taken the time to reflect upon the discovery of the emotions awakened within your being, there is only one last question to be asked...What have you really learned today?

My Fellow Terrans remember, do not turn on one another, for only together we will triumph.

through deceit. The true space program, this underground program that we are just now beginning to hear about, was originally financed by members of the Club of Rome. Now, you'll need to do some homework, to find out who those members are. Don't be surprised at who you see. We will talk more about that later, when we discuss the moon. Prior to this, in the 1850's to the 1950's, a hundred years, there had been some utilization of cattle and humans in experiments by the Greys. The NSA, which was created in the 1950's learned that the Greys were responsible.

In 1952, the U.S. government prepared itself for the realization of ongoing alien contact when our military radar system started to down their craft. The Greys knew that in order to perform their experiments on such a large scale, to save their race, they would need the cooperation of a high political body. In other words, they had to come to terms. A select politically structured body, created secretly within the United States Government, was designed to be the liaison between the Greys, the technological gods, and the earth humans. The military was very enthusiastic for communication with the aliens, in hopes of exchanging technology for raw materials. This liaison group, this political structure, is and was the NSA, the super secret National Security Agency. For contact and study of the aliens was it's original purpose.

A Formal Agreement Forged
In May of 1954, at the Holliman Air Force Base, the United States Government made a formal agreement with the Grey alien race. Some of the terms of this agreement were the exchange of technology, of anti-gravity, metals, alloys, and environmental technologies to assist the earth with free energy and medical application regarding the human body. All the Greys asked for in return, was to be allowed to study the human development, both in the emotional consciousness makeup, and to reside here on earth. This single act of signing a contract with an extraterrestrial race was the most significant act in human history because it launched us in a direction we were never intended to go in the first place and it thrust us into a role that we were not prepared for either. Being hosts to an alien race.

The supreme reality of our time is our indivisibility as Children of God and the common vulnerability of our planet.

-JFK

Essentially, what this contract has also done, was handcuff the Andromedan council and those benevolent extraterrestrial races from being able to take a more active role in the earth's evolution. It has placed the burdens squarely on the shoulders of humanity to enlighten itself of the facts, and to consciously create ascension on an individual basis. Because this particular treaty was agreed upon between the aliens and the "ULTRA" units in the NSA, which actually is a government unto itself, they in affect turned away help from outside benevolent races that we could have obtained before.

The NSA Entanglement
Now pay close attention, because this is the first time I've ever mentioned this. The particular document and original exchange material may be found today in the NSA facility, called Blue Moon, under Kirkland Air Force Base in New Mexico. It's exact entrance is in the Monzoni Mountains. This location houses the private department of energy technological labs. Currently, the building of free energy devices for use in space and on the moon and Mars is ongoing, in this particular area. Much of the alien technology has been reconstructed and sent via a connecting tunnel to Los Alamos and an area located underneath the cliff sides of Los Alamos canyon, where huge vaults are built into the earth. This facility is twenty-nine thousand square feet in size. There are also laboratories equipped to study light, thought and pure energy there. This facility is also used as a jail for aliens captured by the black (secret) government.

Corporations that are currently assisting the aliens and the black government are Standard Oil, Lockheed, Northrup, McDonald Douglas, AT&T, IT&T, The A.A. Matthews Construction Company, The Robins Company, The Utah Mining Company, and numerous more. The NSA is exempt from all laws in the United States unless the NSA itself is specifically mentioned in any creation of law. This is due to its interaction with aliens and it's sometimes necessary out being confined or restrained by blind faith and/or force in believing in some lofty, superior power.

I thank those of you who have chosen to pledge your support. We have a long way to go and a short period of time in which to accomplish our tasks. Please continue to keep up your efforts in spreading the truth, regardless of the public ridicule you may face. Remember that each member of our race is entitled to their opinion and that all opinions should be respected.

During the month of December 1996, our group encountered many who sought answers from the Andromedans regarding subjects ranging from Hale-Bopp and its companion, a predicted mass landing, to a pending arrival of two Photon Belts. Prior to December, Moraney relayed to Alex that by December 5th, there would be those who would strike out in opposition to us. Sure enough, we received correspondence that resorted to ridicule because the Andromedan responses to questions posed were not what they wanted to hear. Some declared, why should we work so hard to achieve when others have promised that we shall receive based on divine intervention.

Other statements declared that the Andromedans seem to disappear just when predicted events of importance are about to happen. And finally, it all culminated with an outright attack by a reputable UFO researcher who derived his information through an unrecognizable source who claimed to be the inventor of the DRACO scenario from which Alex supposedly borrowed from. And I quote, "I think Alex is just another synthesizer, purveying false information for his own aggrandizement. This just hurts serious researchers who are just coming to accept these alien life forms and are searching for some truth about them."

Faith In Oneself

My friends, we're not dealing here with the religion of Ufology or any other religious belief system. Nor is our intention to destroy anyone's beliefs. What is being shared with you, is a reminder that each of us is a responsible leader. Moraney once stated, "Those persons who have done the inner work on the path of being a true human being, acquire wisdom and courage and are true leaders. They always have faith in themselves. Those who walk the path of heart will discover that through faith emerges wisdom. And this same faith enables the leaders to employ their wisdom effectively in all situations. Courage is indispensable to be a leader. Leadership is no place for cowardice. Always strive to advance wisdom and courage."

Having faith in yourself, to have the courage and conviction in your wisdom that empowers you, and knowing that you are that power in action. Moraney summed up his thoughts by saying, "Being a leader or becoming a leader does not mean you have perfect faith or wisdom. These are life-long pursuits. Being a leader is to help develop people, and to help people develop into self-responsibility; to be spiritually mature and free and to cultivate voluntary introspection."

People, it really is not just all Love and Light awaiting us. Even those ET races that are labeled "Benevolent", just like us find themselves in situations where they too must rely on offensive and defensive scenarios, to assure their safety and/or the safety of others they choose to defend. The Andromedans shared with us, that if a race leans to far towards a positive direction that the race will eventually encounter overtly positive aspects that results in negative outcomes. And that the opposite holds true for those races that lean toward the negative direction as they will also encounter negative aspects that result in positive outcomes. The only truly responsible path to take is one where you walk the middle ground. It is there that you will encounter your most challenging lessons of real value. Taking the middle path is the test of your empowerment and leadership tempered by consistency.

It must be realized, that by our actions now and in the near future, many of us can position ourselves for the transition to fifth density. This will be of great excitement to us all, and it means that many of us will have opportunity to go home to those races from which we came. For those races of a benevolent nature, our return will mark new learning and growth due to our emotions. And those of the malevolent nature, will bring with us that which they have avoided within our emotional experiences. In any event, the Law of Consistency will prevail.

At this time I would like to address certain basic questions that have been asked of us

infringements of civil rights and constitutional rights of the American people. In other words, to make it exempt from breaking any laws and hurting anybody here, they made it completely separate. And it is completely separate, even though your tax dollars pay for the running of it. There was also a great deal of private money used by the NSA to build the alien technology and to keep humanity under control. The status quo secure. Even the CIA doesn't know much about the Ultra or Blue Moon units of the NSA. These are the two highest units the NSA has that deals directly with alien technology and information.

Genetic Survival Factor
Now realize that the Greys are genetic engineers, though not the only ones. Most of the aliens from off planet are genetic engineers because they value life forms as opposed to gold and silver. Genetic's, life forms and things of that nature are their wealth. A lot of the genetic engineering and experimentation is going on here, on earth and on Mars moon Phobos, by the Greys. They are using this opportunity to try to satisfy their own agenda, which is to create DNA and genetic stock that is clean enough to foster new physical life forms that are capable of regeneration and birth for their race. As of right now, the Greys are most interested in female genetic stock because all family lineages follow the female rather than the male. Why? Because you always know who your mother is, you may not always know who your father is.

Many new races have been created this way throughout our galaxy. It's not something that's new going on here. This has been going on for a very long time. Few races today have actually remained as pure genetic stock, with the exception of two races that the Andromedans say are really genetically clean. That is the Reptilians from Alpha Draconis, and the other is what we call, or know as the Elohim, which are a very ancient race of humans that survived Lyra. All other races are a varied degree of hybrid or mixture of races of different genetic stock.

Another point is that, the Greys themselves would like to be free from the Orion empire. They will have no chance of survival themselves if they do not create or match their body type or genetics with ours. You see, time is quickly running out for them and we as a race is also evolving at a tremendous rate. On a spiritual conscious level, we are evolving dramatically, making our genetics harder to use while they are dying out like there's no tomorrow. And they are very aware of this fact. So, even though what they're doing is wrong, they really are caught in a very tough position themselves. Because what they're doing to us has been done to them. I'm just trying to draw parallels. I'm not justifying it in any way. By the way, when any of the aliens give birth to a child, they take that child outside of the earth's atmosphere so the child is born fully aware of its reincarnational history, so it realizes who it is, and it doesn't carry the veil. Why is this? Apparently, there is some kind of agreement; if you're born within the earth's atmosphere, you've got to be veiled. It's just part of what comes with being born here.

Energy Vampirism
The Greys masters assigned agenda, is to create a slave race which is currently in full swing, for the purposes of control, physical services, labor and, sexual energy. Now I will explain this. The acts of feeding, war, anger, psychic energy, genetic experiments, hybrids as a food source, genetic and biological materials. The Greys and their Masters feed off this, our energy. As examples: If two people are fighting, they create a lot of emotional negative energy. And this is why you will find, that whenever there are wars going on, there's a lot of UFO activity. Negative energy! They just feed off it. It's liken to when your making love to your man or to your wife, and you reach that moment where you are both at the same place at the same time, in a loving benevolent way. That's how it feels for them regarding negative energy release. The energy of fear, that rush of adrenaline, young teens on a battlefield running around scared, this is what they crave, all of the negative emotional aspects.

Hidden Conscious Programming
They have also been doing extensive research on the human brain and its capabilities as well as study of the soul. Many people who have been implanted by the Greys, those who are aware of it and those who still aren't, must become aware of the fact, that they have actually been on a kind of machine and are being shown and trained to do something. According to the Andromedans, the Greys are training us to fight their war against the Draconians (one of their masters) when they get go to page 8 through the month of December. First, Alex does not channel the Andromedans. Alex physically meets with them at a location of their choosing or he receives telepathic one-way communications, two-way conversations and sometimes messages left in lucid dreams. Alex can place a call out to his Andromedan friends, but they do not always respond, usually because they are not in the area or are usually very busy doing other important tasks. For this reason, we can not always get answers to your questions until they once again communicate with Alex. Please note that even then the conversations can be short in duration, one-way, and with a focused topic.

Many have inquired about the Hale-Bopp situation. Please note that a photograph showing three moon sized objects in Hale-Bopp's (a craft) tail support statements made almost two years earlier from the Andromedans when they stated that these moon-shaped mothership's would indeed be in the tail. And now, regarding the Companion as it is being called, please refer back to the April 1996 issue of our newsletter when the Andromedans mentioned that another comet (craft) was seen quickly coming from the Constellation of Cancer, heading towards our sector of space and would arrive at about the same time or slightly after Hale-Bopp. Well the Companion just might be the reported craft we have been hearing about. It has been asked, "Are both comets (crafts) benevolent or malevolent?"

On 12/12/96, Alex had the Leading Edge Research post that as of September 1996, large mothership's from the Andromedan Council began to take position in our solar system. As of 11/3/96, there are 7 large ships in our solar system that have been stationed here, and will remain here. Two of the ships are Andromedan (900 mile diameter spheres). The distribution of the Andromedan Council ships as of 12/12/96 are as follows: One ship near Gandymede, one adjacent to Uranus, and 5 ships near Neptune. According to Moraney, "most probably" there will be more ships arriving in our solar system before the arrival of the Hale-Bopp Complex, which involve primarily the Orion Group and groups from Sirius B.

Additionally, it was noted that the ships seen in the area of Israel are connected with the Niburu Group (Jehovah has returned), who have interacted with upper portions of the Israeli government for decades in order to retain control of the middle eastern area, somehow connected with the control of the planet by the Orion Group.

To date no news has yet to come from the Andromedans relating directly to the Companion.

I want to share with you an incident that we stumbled upon during late summer 1996. We started receiving e-mail from the Hawaiian Islands about a gentlemen who was having contacts with some Sirian's. Being the inquisitive one that I am, I started asking questions via e-mail through a contact person who's job it was in helping the person circulate the Sirian information out to others.

Well first I wanted to know, from what planet were these Sirian's from? The answer was Sirius B. For me, all my alarms went off! So now my quest was to ask a series of questions to see if I could provoke these so called "benevolent" Sirian B's into proving their benevolence. I kept Alex in the loop to support and back my play. Between us, we started coming up with questions for these Sirian B's to answer, paying close attention to how they worded their answers. At first they answered straight forward, but as time went on they grew uptight about my incessant questioning of their stated answers. When the contactee started questioning their intentions, they finally showed their true nature and became violent towards the contactee. At that time, we had Alex call the contactee directly and he recommended methods to block their influences, since they were no longer welcome and were becoming quite harmful. Well, the contactee was successful in turning them away. During all of this, we learned that the Sirian B's were setting up a base of operations in the Hawaiian Islands (near Maui).

Here is why I brought this up. Many of you know there is a group of Sirian B's that are stating that a divine sanctioned mass landing was to take place during the month of December 1996. We received many questions asking if the Andromedans knew anything about all of this. We frankly had no answers other than the Andromedans past statements that the Sirian B's were malevolent. We took a little heat over this, but decided it was best here, because they are going to use us as their soldiers. Just like when our military sends in the infantry and marines, those implanted will be the first ones on the beach. While the Greys sitting back on board their ships drinking champagne or having a gin and tonic, and wondering how the battle is going. And they have chosen our world to be the battle ground.

At the same time they are still going about preparing the earth for its new owners. Apparently, the Greys are going to make this attempt, but the inevitable truth is that the Reptilians from Alpha Draconis are on their way here now. And this has very serious implications for us. Now, honestly, I'm not here to promote fear. I don't believe in it. But I'm telling you what I've been told to tell you. We have boxed ourselves into a corner and the only way we can change the outcome is that we have to consciously become aware of what our world is really about, what's really going on here. And we have to create a space of love. Folks, that's the bottom line.

Cosmic Saviors?
By creating a space of love, the Greys, the Draconians, the Orions won't be able to handle the vibration. They have got to leave, or we're going to have to ask for some serious intervention here. In which case, there's going to be war in the heavens as the Bible has predicted. It will be all about saving us! You know, this talk about ASHTAR coming down here to save you. Ladies and gentlemen, it isn't going to happen. It's just another belief system. Or how about Commander Hatton, who is saying we will take you to Mars. No thanks! I don't want to go to Mars, it just isn't going to happen that way. Nobody is going to save you, because according to the Andromedans, if you're sitting here waiting for a savior, you're not doing the work yourself. And who would come down here to take you off the hook? For what purpose? You will only recreate the situation again someday. If you haven't permanently evolved to that level of becoming your own savior, your own messiah, then you haven't learned your life's lessons. And this is what the Andromedans strongest message is. You have got to do the work yourself. You are only responsible for yourself. Nobody is going to take you off the hook. Matter of fact, if they do end up intervening on our behalf, they are not going to stick around afterward and baby-sit us.

We are one, after all, you and I; together we suffer, together exist, and forever sill recreate each other.
Teilard de Chaidin

That means we have got to get it straight. That we as a race, have got to come together and decide what it is that we want and how we want to live. How are we going to raise our children? What moralities, what laws, etc. Not to be told by somebody else out there, what is best for us. Folks! It's never worked before, and it isn't going to work now. Most human beings would rather die than live being a slave. That's just our nature, our soul, to be free. We're at that point again. What will we choose?

Implants and Clones
You see, the Greys are currently monitoring the brain waves of those they have implanted. They have done this for the better part of a hundred years on earth. So generations of family members have had implants. The cloning of human beings, of life forms and the art of subversion was taught by the Greys to the NSA. On the two highest levels of human interaction with the Greys within the NSA, there exists cloned human beings and humans so heavily implanted, that according to the Andromedans, they do not consider them human beings anymore. They have joined the group mind of the Greys. They have lost free will. They are clone robots! Their soul is trapped and they are no longer considered compassionate human beings.

Grey Thought Process
The Greys clone their own race into a cast of slaves, just like ants. They all basically think the same things at the same time. Their minds are like radios. If there are no radio waves, they don't do anything. They have computers which transmit the radio-like waves, telling them what their jobs are, their functions that they must carry out. If the computers, their group mind, were shut down, the Greys would no longer know what to do for themselves. They do not possess individual intelligence like us, although they would very much like to create us to be like them. The Greys also consider what we call God, a mind, like we think of our own mind. They have completely detached themselves from their

to keep quite. It should be noted, we have not heard any mention about this from the Andromedans currently, or even before.

As we all know, the mass landing did not take place. We figured that if this was really to take place, then the Andromedans would have told us about it well in advance. We never heard a word on it, and since they did not rush to tell us anything, we felt it was best to hold silence. We figured if the mass landing was going down, then the Andromedan Council forces would be engaged in battle right now.

As a reminder, remember that the Sirian B's walked out on the Andromedan Council when they were informed that the entire Andromedan race and all Council races would stand up in force against any who would seek to deny us of our right to advance ourselves, on our own. Another source shared with me, that malevolent forces have infiltrated a segment of the Ashtar Command. Haven't we always been told, to beware of those who would try and deceive us? This is why it is so important that you pay close attention to how extraterrestrial races word their statements.

Some Specific Questions: Why would the Creators divine timetable have to be altered because of our "illegal" governments actions? Are these not the same beings who said they would shut down all electricity and weapons prior to landing for everyone's safety? Why do they keep changing the Creators original timetable? Were we not told that the Andromedans would be involved in the mass landing?

A surprise mass landing sounds more like what the movie "Independence Day" was all about. We should be aware of beings who say one thing, while doing another; just like the campy movie "Mars Attacks", where the Martians tell the people, "We come in peace.", while they blast away with their so called superior weapons. If this were to come to pass, remember that the Andromedans have stated, that we only need to collectively change our intent through our collective conscious thought and the battle would be over before it begins.

What are we to make of the Photon Belts? The Andromedans have stated in the past, that they haven't been able to detect any Photon Belts coming from any direction towards our solar system. That has been our position. Besides, you would figure that they should have the ability to recognize a Photon Belt if they were to encounter one. Again, if something like this were to be coming, wouldn't the Andromedans have told us prior to the event? So far, not a peep! And guess what, it seems not to have appeared for the masses either.

Now we are told of a protective hologram that is being used to protect us from the dangers of the void created by the collision of the two Photon Belts. First off, the Andromedans have stated before that the Sirian B's do not have the technical ability to place a hologram around anything or anybody. If they did, wouldn't that be a violation of our free-will choice? Did you and I say they could do that?

How could a hologram protect you from the effects of the Photon Belt since we have been told that the Photon Belt penetrates everything. Since our existence is a hologram within a hologram residing in a 21 trillion year old hologram, how can a race of beings that do not possess the ability to create a hologram, then have one placed around us that blocks the effects? (The Angelic Hierarchy, maybe.) Why would the effects want to be blocked since we have been told all a long that the effects are what we have been waiting for?

The closest the Andromedan's have come to a possible Photon Belt-like experience would be when on March 23rd, 1994 a color-sound frequency started to emanate from the black holes in our known universe, bring forth a 12th density that is changing everything. In our holographic universe nobody has control over this. It is coming from outside our universe and it is literally using frequency to evolve everything to a higher density level or plane.

The Andromedan's shared with Alex that, "those of us who have an intent to evolve, that intent would emit a frequency." While he can not honestly tell us for sure what the emotion involved is, let's assume it is love. "Those people who truly hold the space of love, what will happen is that they will be able to absorb more of the incoming frequency, which means that they will start to shed the physicality. The atoms in your body, will start to speed up faster spiritual essence, so long ago, that their physical existence and personality has become pure ego. The Draconians are pure ego, as well. Many other races genetically altered by the Draconians, are also experiencing the separation from their own essence too.

Now, I don't understand the process or exactly how it works, but the Greys no longer believe themselves to be spirit, to be in essence. They're trapped mentally, emotionally, physically in a physical existence, therefore, that's all they see. They literally disown and fractionalize themselves away from their spiritual essence. It's no longer a part of them. Human beings have also been known to do that themselves, as well. You know we can fractionalize ourselves into many different personalities. The Greys are pure ego!

They are very sophisticated in mathematics and energy sciences. It has been said, that our military at the time of the Holliman Air Force meeting, that there was an exchange of personnel. Our military gave the Greys sixteen military personnel and that were supposed to be taken to the Greys' point of origin and that they left us one or two guys or something of theirs along those same lines. Well, according to the Andromedans, it was really a hundred and nine human beings that were taken at that particular exchange. They have not returned. As a matter of fact, they did not go to the Greys's point of origin, which was Zeta Reticuli 2, rather they went to the motherships and Phobos where they were experimented on.

Shared Grey Technology
The Greys gave virus technology to the NSA, which then was handed on to lower levels within our military complex. In Africa, we find the testing ground for the AIDS virus. There's a reason for this. This virus technology was given by the Greys to the biological unit in Ultra within the NSA. One of NSA's underground facilities is underneath Fort Mead in Maryland. At that location there are nineteen acres of underground caverns, with some of the most highly technological and sophisticated super computers in the world, that were built and designed inside the facility. They have never seen the light of day. This area, and the one in Mt. Hood, Oregon are engaged in massive surveillance of the world's telephones, telegraph, telex, fax, radio, television, microwave communication, NORAD and also space radio waves. The complex in Mt. Hood is where our military is cloning human beings and aliens. I don't know what alien races.

Why U.S.A. vs. Russia?
Jumping back in history a bit. In the late 1950's, the Greys also approached the Russians regarding the signing of treaties and mutual exchange. The Russians, however, already at the time, were included in the proceedings of the NSA, chose not to sign this independent treaty because they knew full well that the Greys would try to pit the United States against the Soviet Union. It is in fact the Soviet Union that informed JFK of the Greys presence, during the Cuban missile crisis. The Andromedans have stated that the Russians were trying to blackmail the U.S. into sharing the alien technology, thus the Bay of Pigs. That's when they put the missiles there pointed at the United States. The Russians became increasingly aware that the NSA and the CIA were developing incredible technology and were not sharing it, as was their agreement, shortly after the Holliman agreement. Apparently, JFK asked the CIA three times if the Russian allegations were true. The CIA lied twice to the president, even though nuclear weapons were only eighteen minutes away from striking the U.S. They just flat out lied to him and said, "No. They're nuts." This prompted JFK to want to scatter the CIA to the winds. This is one of the more important reasons the "black" government found JFK as a threat and had him make a physical transition prematurely. It was JFK's desire that some of this technology would reach the common people and be used for the betterment of mankind and that it be made known to the American people that the alien presence was upon us. This is one of the reasons why he successfully launched a civilian space program so that all Americans and people of the world could share in the discovery.

The ultimate miracle of Love is this, that Love is given to us to give to one another.

and faster and faster, so you will literally be disappearing from third density and going between worlds. Those who choose not to be in that space of withholding love, or they have fear; what will happen is that they will become more and more dense because they will not be absorbing the light, the sound or the frequency, and the soul will become encrusted or encased in the physicality." And at some point between third and fourth, or third and fifth, there is a threshold where the two will separate. So those who choose to evolve will migrate up to fifth density, while those who wish to remain in third will go through a black hole to a newly created universe of time where they will create something new. This is what we know. Now does this sound like the Photon Belt to you? My opinion is, you must take responsibility if you are to change, not just expect it to be handed to you.

As of January the Sirian B's stated that the original time frame proved unacceptable to the Divine Plan, and a new date has been set for later in the year. (Hale-Bopp's arrival?) They stated, "Be aware that we are determined to achieve our first contact with you as soon as the Divine Plan allows." Further stated, "At the time of our coming, the full extent of this ancient wisdom will be fully revealed to all the various members of Earth's many, many tribes. In any case, you must understand that we are your ancestors and most of all, also your parents." (Is this related to Hopi Prophecy?) We are also told that our planets surface governments have been advised of their "intent and fact" of the landings coming up. Since our governments have been covering up this information, they say they have "some surprises" for them in the coming weeks. They say our governments have some "chinks in their armor and we will use it to get our point firmly across." The Sirian B's top this off with the statement, " This "cat and mouse game", as you call it, is almost over, but what we like is a good final contest that sets the stage for our arrival.

Well my friends, it was similar wording like this that triggered our discovery of the Sirian B malevolent intentions during the summer. I can't speak for you, but when language like the words I have highlighted above are used, I don't get a rush of feeling a benevolent intent! I believe our governments have heard from them, but not the good natured message that we are being told. If it was good natured, our government should be relieved of there secret burden they have kept from us all these years, since this would be a force of considerable size for any malevolent race to try and challenge. If it were a "good thing" don't you think we would hear about it? But, if it were a "bad thing", now I could understand our government not wanting to panic the people, yet!

Now what are we to think of the words "surface governments"? Does this mean that there are governments under the surface, maybe? Or that those under the surface are on their side and are awaiting their arrival before coming out into the open. Let's not forget the Grey's (Dows) and Alpha Draconians, both have many bases underground. With the previous information from the Andromedans about the arriving benevolent motherships, does this give us that "Independence Day" picture, with a twist? Wait, I have more comments. We were told that our illegal government knew about the Photon Belt but would not tell us about its coming. First, when did our government become illegal? The U.S. government may no longer be looking out for our best interests, but from its conception it was not illegally conceived. The U.S. Republic's challenge down through time would be to hold on to our freedoms and style of government, so declared Benjamin Franklin. Have we given up yet?

Another incident comes to mind that I must comment on. It was stated that the military has stepped up its alert status and that many have reported seeing jets streaking across the sky all over the nation. Well I do a lot of travelling and I always keep my eyes to the sky wherever I go. For years I have been observing military jets and helicopters all over the nation. I have not noticed any more activity than usual to date in my travels. What I believe is going on here is that others are actually looking up and paying attention to what's going on overhead for the first time. To them, the action in the sky is new and could seem as if the predictions were correct. I can see how a "False Prophet" would use this type of tactic to convince others of truth by deception. How many people watch the military in the sky's above?

Most recently the Sirian B's Galactic Federation issued some towards the earth. They were Grey motherships. These time traveling space crafts were the same crafts seen near Venus in 1787, 1788, 1789. In 1645, it was reported that a large moon was seen near Venus. For other times, as well in the same year, it was seen coming and going. The last time it was reported was in 1767. The same type of occurrence happened around Mars, on November 25, 1894. A large ship was seen illuminating part of Mars. The same occurrence for Mercury in 1799. The same large planetary body crossed the sun on August 26, 1859 and this same body today, that's still there, is called Volcan. It's a mothership. It isn't a planet. During the total eclipse of July 29, 1878, astronomers saw two large glowing planetary bodies, about the size of Venus, between Mercury and Venus. According to the Andromedans, these were Pleadian and Andromedan motherships that had gone back in time. They were observing the Greys orbiting around the sun. They wanted me to share all these dates with you. I don't necessarily know why, but here are some more. In 1783 and 1787, huge bright lights were reported on the moon. They were mistakenly reported as volcanoes, at first. But then they moved and lit up the dark side of the moon which cause a noticeable glow around the top portion of the moon. In February of 1894, a comet was apparently photographed striking a huge dark object in our solar system. It happened to have wings and, according to the Andromedans, this was a Draconian mothership. The same phenomena occurred in April 4, 1892 and it was about one third the size of the moon, six to seven hundred miles in diameter. As it crossed astronomers thought that it was a bird, but its wings didn't flutter. Again, this was a Draconian mothership. This was observed again on January 27, 1912. A ship two hundred and fifty miles long, fifty miles wide, resembling a crow, was sitting on the moon. According to the Andromedans, this again was a craft from reptilian Alpha Draconis.

Hidden Religious Agenda
Many operations have been created by the Greys over the past five hundred years for the purposes of manipulation and control of our religious belief systems. I don't want to offend anybody, but I'm going to tell you just the way it's been presented to me. All you have to do is listen. If it doesn't feel right for you, then dismiss it. If it does feel right, and you get the chills, then maybe you should start paying attention to it.

To have us morally and spiritually compromise our free will to a savior-like image, the Greys by allowing us to compromise ourselves under these false pretenses, they are absolved from the creating any Karma for themselves. Instead, they let us create the Karma to ourselves. It really is such a set-up. The power of belief systems can be used as fuel for the game of seducing people into believing that certain things are true. By the power created by the conscious thoughts, we can literally make these things occur and come true, whether they benefit us or not. These are real spiritual dynamics at work here and they're being used against us. Our physical matter (physical body) is the embodiment of ideas or belief systems. Our Universe consists of ideas and thought systems, condensed and turned towards itself, inwards. We turn it towards ourselves to create and originate spirit and energy. Now if I need to say it again I will. This is our definition again, word for word. Our physical matter is the embodiment of ideas (belief systems). Our universe consists of ideas and thought, condensed and turned towards itself, inwards. To create and originate spirit and energy. In other words, we really are gods. We really can do anything we want to do.

Suppressed Spiritual Evolution
We, of earth, have evolved only in technical and material sciences. Our spiritual evolution, for the most part has been suppressed from us by a group of extraterrestrials, and now the black government and its plan for a New World Order. Because upon learning these spiritual truths, the NSA and the black world government, realized that everything that they have been trying to do can be swept away. According to the Andromedans, and their exact words were, "Could be swept away in a day, should humanity become enlightened." If a billion people come to the realization and a decision that we no longer want this reality, it can literally change with the setting and the rising of the sun. But, they stress, we need to be clear of what we want, which is part of the decision, and our responsibility factors. That is ours. In other words, if we're going to create it, we take responsibility for it.

decree's about the upcoming mass landings. On January 20, 1997 they stated, "the Galactic Federation will formally change its policy concerning the treatment of any military aircraft who pursue any Federation vehicles who are occupying 'air space' of this planet." It went on to state that our "fighter aircraft will be treated as hostile in nature" and "dealt with accordingly." "When the sweep of all aircraft from the skies before the landings, all military fighter aircraft are hereby put on notice that their escape/ejection seats will be fired before their aircraft are vaporized by our defense forces." They went on to claim that they have lost personnel recently and "will not tolerate" this action or the capture of their people pursuing peaceful tasks. They finished the decree by stating, "we will not continue to tolerate any further childish acts by your illegal and barbaric surface governments." In their second decree dated January 22nd they stated, "We are deeply honored that we will soon help you to end the most long and inglorious reign of your illegal surface governments."

Are we to believe that this is how benevolent races act? Sounds to me like threats not love. How about an invasion of our free will rights to protect ourselves from the unknown. Can't they realize that a smaller diplomatic approach might be best with media involvement as a better way than just coming down in mass numbers. (Invasion Force!) What they are asking to do, is next to impossible without prior notification to the entire world population. Why don't they take control of the media and bring forth their true intentions.

And now our governments are not only illegal but "barbaric" surface (there's that word again) govern-ments. Again, our governments have much to be desired, but is this really the kind of talk you would expect from benevolent beings? I still don't feel any love in the message. Rather, I feel lots of anger and fear inducing taunting. Maybe the Sirian B's are implying that our underground governments are OK. How many by show of hands think the (Shadow Government) is good for the world population? Don't be bashful now, lets see those hands. Isn't the Shadow Government involved with preparing us for the turn-over to the Master Overlord Races? All I am trying to say is look at the statements made, es-pecially the words chosen to be used (highlighted).

It is this authors opinion, that the Sirian B's have proven again, that they are master deceivers. Maybe it was a test to see what numbers of our population would respond to this very "benevolent" sounding infor-mation. Be honest, how many of us fell for it? The Sirian B's were offering us by divine intervention (plan) a gift of great importance. All we had or have to do is meditate, wait and just let it happen. All would benefit.

We as a race need to think about these issues some more and what they imply. The Andromedan's shared with us in the last newsletter this statement, "Religions become divisions of beliefs, and conflicts among your races took place. The worship of belief systems and idolatry came into existence." Does some of what recently happened regarding the mass landing and the Photon Belt issues sound like many of the old familiar religious belief systems? How about a Ufology "New Age" belief system that takes in all the worlds "religious" belief systems? Now where do you place your faith?

Let me continue with what the Andromedan's have said, "Now the technology of advanced races in higher densities have taken control of your evolutionary systems. By means of this system's control, the evolution of certain dimensions and reincarnations are now becoming history and by this means, your races Alex, and others than yours, have a probability of directly attaining your full essences. The reason for telling you this truth in all clarity is to free you of the conflicts and contradictions so your races can attain the truth as soon as possible. So don't ask us about yourself, ask about yourself to your own self."

This is why the true path to enlightenment is through our own empowerment by believing in ourselves. To know that we are each responsible leaders and through our leadership, via the Law of Consistency we can each obtain that for which we seek...our true full beingness.

I have said this many times before, but it needs continual repeating. No one source within our holographic reality has all the answers. Look upon all with an open mind. Look at the messengers and the messages given forth. If they seem too true to be real, then I suggest you study them closer before you decide. Many forces are out to make sure that we remain a

to the Andromedans, this is one example of the extra terrestrial manipulation or assault of our belief systems. This holographic image on the shroud was created by the Greys to strengthen a belief system in a savior or messiah. This belief system assists their plan for control because humanity would love to give their power away to someone that appeared to be a true and legitimate messiah, because we've been taught to do that. The Greys know that few people truly want to accept responsibility for their own evolution. Most would rather be told what to do, than to realize the situation and take the appropriate action necessary to free themselves.

To further realize the Grey manipulation on a belief system level, there is also a plan in development to play out a staged second coming. This will occur shortly after the destruction of the world economy, maybe six years, tops. This being will be a clone human being, a biological, who will holographically be imprinted with everything from spiritual truths regarding information about all religions, metaphysics, and he will come out speaking about all of these great wonders. He will strongly profess the Hindu philosophy. Why, I don't know, but this is what they're saying. The intent is evil; this being will not have a soul. He is not spirit. He is robotoid, a clone, a robot, a synthetic. The Greys have this kind of ability to stage this kind of action using their technology. He will be the image of the man on the shroud of Turin.

Anti-Christ
The Anti-Christ will not be the evil soul portrayed in the Bible. The Anti-Christ will truly be someone who tried to express the truth on the true matters and seize the United States government as the cause of all this evil. This is what they've said. Now, I have to add this, in defense of that belief system. The Vatican, in 1960, admitted that there were fourteen plagiarisms in the New Testament. They refused to say what they were, but they said that there were fourteen. That means you can't believe by it as gospel, so to speak, because they changed it. It wasn't God who wrote it. The church changed it and they admitted it. So, you do with that what you want. But everyone is believing it has to happen, and by us believing it has to happen, ladies and gentlemen, we're going to create it! We're going to make it happen, and they're sitting up there laughing at us, saying look at those idiots. Look what they're doing to themselves.

Virgin Mary, Fatima
The Greys were responsible for the Fatima episode in Portugal, where the Virgin Mary supposedly spoke to the children. This was a holographic image of a woman who professed to be the Virgin Mary, the mother of Jesus Christ. The sun supposedly fell from the sky and miraculously healed people. Using Grey technology, these somewhat miracles did occur., But they used light and sound, which they beamed from their ship to the various people affecting these cures in their physical bodies. Now, this is technology that has been here on the earth, at least the last hundred years or more. But it is against the law now, in most places in the United States because it works. And that's color and sound, And the reason for sound work, is because the entire universe is a holographic projection turned inside of itself. It's all a holograph. Virtually all the people present were implanted during the missing time phase of this episode. A large mothership positioned itself in front of the sun to create this occurrence. The reasons this is not a true is because the biblical Jesus is a composite character. And as such, is an allegorical myth. The Virgin Mary is also a composite character and these composites were made for the purposes of uniting the religions of the ancient Roman Empire so that their resources were not being used to constantly stop religious wars between different factions.

Alternatives I, II, III, & IV
In the 1950's the so-called meetings of the Jason society were triggered by information given to the Ultra unit in the NSA by the Greys about the world's situation regarding pollution and population. It was at this particular time that the Greys offered little assistance or sharing of technology regarding environmental issues. This has persisted even today. The Pleadians have in fact, offered more solutions than any other group to date, but they were turned away by the NSA. This prompted the first of three alternatives that have been discussed in UFO circles already. These alternatives are in fact, and were in fact, a reality. That's alternative one, two, three and four. The New World Order is in a major predicament. The Greys are twenty-five hundred deceived race. Anything that strikes you as controlling or manipulative, my advise is leave it behind for it will not serve your true purposes. Watch out for offers of enlightenment and salvation, especially where you do not have to do anything but believe. Truthfully, when in life has anything just been given to us without us creating some action for it first?

My friends, it was not my intention in this article to offend any of you, but if I did, then maybe it's time to rethink how you fit within the whole reality of our combined holographic creation. Please learn to live in harmony with each other for we are but a single race. Never allow others to control your free will or your sovereign right of choice. Don't ask of others what you yourself would not be willing to do. Love yourself first and then carry that love over to all others. The time has come, for each of us to be the true leaders that we were born to be. Are you ready?

years ahead of us technologically. The black government is afraid to tell us the truth concerning this reality because they fear a revolution, overthrow, and desire self-preservation form the people who will want their scalps.

Two large motherships are on the planet right now, hiding in the oceans. One is in the Pacific Ocean, below the equator and the other one is in the Atlantic. I don't know where. I don't know whose they are, but they're here. My sense is that they're benevolent because the government has actually talked about implementing alternative four which was creating a controlled pole shift. The Andromedans have said no way would they allow this to happen. So my sense is that there are benevolent ships that are anchoring the planet on its axis. That's my opinion. The military know that, this is why they're testing sound in the oceans, especially in the Pacific.

In all things, experience must be the guide and reason the teacher.

Alien Tampering
Aliens have been attacking us more openly in space. It started with the Russian Phobos probe when it was destroyed. The Mars observer was captured by Reptilians on Mars. It isn't going to come on-line. It's gone. Also, closer to home, in December 1993, a Landsat satellite disappeared in orbit, just vanished. In August of 1993, the European space agency lost two communications satellites, again, they literally just vanished from orbit. The Canadian Telstar was destroyed in our atmosphere on January 15, 1994. It was seen crashing to earth. This was shot down by the Greys. Again, I don't know why. A NASA Satcom 3 communications satellite vanished in May of 1979. It was just taken. Two Soviet Millennia satellites were also taken. They just vanished from our orbit, from our atmosphere.

Who Can Be Trusted?
Here's our scenario. The benevolent races have told the world governments that they would help us but world governments have to dismantle their nuclear weapons. The earth governments did not want to do this because they don't know who to trust. They created this situation and they do not know who to trust now. However, the world government is so desperate to get rid of the Greys, that they apparently have put a call out for help, using satellites. The Andromedans say there is a group that has offered to help our earth governments with the problem of the Greys, even by giving us weapons to fight the Greys. Re-enter, the Reptilians from Alpha Draconis, the only real enemies the Greys have, and that humankind has. The Reptilians from Alpha Draconis have answered the call. But the Greys actually work for the Draconians. It's all part of the set-up. When we invite them in here there will be no battle. And once they're here we'll never get rid of the Draconians.

The Pleadians are assisting the Andromedan Council in attempting to quarantine our solar system from invading forces, namely the Orion group and Alpha Draconis. The quarantine line, the defense line, is between Uranus and Pluto and consists of a mixture of benevolent races, both physical and non-physical. There are Pleadians, Andromedans, Arcturians, Syrians from Syrius A, Reticulin, Accordance and Umonians from Umo. This line of defense is really like a last resort. Apparently, two huge Grey motherships have already been turned back that were on their way to Earth and Mars. And apparently there were casualties on both sides in the exchange of turning them away.

Alien Terrorists

Please realize that currently, there are fifteen thousand Greys underneath the United Stares. The Greys (Dows) are in fact, a renegade group of Reticulans. They are not from Reticuli and haven't been back there for hundreds and hundreds of thousands of years. They have been travelling through space in their arc's. Before they came to Earth, they were residing on Sirius B. That was their originating point before coming here. There are approximately eighteen hundred and thirty-three Reptilians living beneath the United States. Their habitat is from one hundred to two hundred miles beneath the surface of the earth. They generally live in caverns and the ancient tunnel systems created hundreds of thousand of years ago. The are not benevolent. And, every once in a while, they come up for a contact. They have been seen in New York City, Missouri, Chicago, and in the southwest United States. These area's happen to be the largest areas where missing children occur, numbering in the thousands. The Andromedans state that thirteen thousand seven-hundred and twelve children have been taken by these Reptilians over the last twenty-five years. In Linda Molten-Howe's book, "Alien Harvest", there is mention of human body parts seen in underground bases. The Andromedans confirm that we are being used for food. The Greys use our blood and it is the Reptilians that consume the live human flesh. Their favorite food is children because they lack nicotine, caffeine, and other environmental pollutants. Like we eat veal, they eat us.

An Indian Prayer

Oh, great Spirit, whose voice I hear in the winds
And whose breath gives life to everyone,
Hear me.
I come to you as one of your children.
I am weak ... I am small ... I need your wisdom
And your strength.
Let me walk in beauty, and make my eyes ever
Behold the red and purple sunsets.
Make my hands respect the things you have made
And make my ears sharp so I may hear your voice.
Make me wise, so that I may understand
What you have taught my people and
The lessons you have hidden in each leaf
And in each rock.
I ask for wisdom and strength,
Not to be superior to my brothers, but to be able
To fight my greatest enemy, myself.
Make me ever ready to come before you with Clean hands and straight eye.
So as life fades away as a fading sunset,
My spirit may come to you without shame.

Walk-Ins

The Greys are searching for walk-ins for they want to learn about spirit. I'm speaking about benevolence and not satanic possession or that kind of stuff. Walk-ins are necessary at this particular time. They are higher evolved souls. Seventy-two thousand walk-ins are on the planet right now and are a part of the Andromedan Council. Seventy-two thousand more are coming in the next three years to balance the negativity that is being created. Because of the Councils laws of non-intervention, the Andromedan Council found it necessary to intervene in another way without violating its council directives. Thus, the walk-ins who are actually earth human beings, are here to do that kind of work. It's a backdoor approach. There are fifteen hundred and thirty-one actual benevolent human extra terrestrials on our planet right now. Where they are, I don't know. But they are here to record, report and observe, and possibly assist some of the walk-ins. And at some point, they will be leaving. But, apparently they live just like us, and they're in our every day lives.

Bottom-Line Facts

Keep these facts in mind. There are eighteen thousand Greys; fifteen thousand here on the Earth and three thousand on the Moon. The regular government which makes up the majority of Washington, D.C., doesn't have a clue as to what's really going on. The black government, consists of various levels. At the top, they know everything, The lower levels only know small pieces, on a need to know basis, usually just one piece of the puzzle. The total picture is one outrageous secret based on deliberate deceit that creates the subversion of the public trust. Forewarned is forearmed. What are we going to do about it?

What About...?

What is the Andromedan perspective on possible "Earth Changes" in our future?

We are going to have to become more responsible and exercise our free will, because there will be earth changes. People who live on coastal areas will have a problem. The oceans are going to rise at least 200 feet between now and 2008. The ice cap at the South Pole is going to slip. The ocean will not reach Denver, but it will get as far as Lake Mead in the West (USA). Most of the East Coast (USA) will be all right except for areas of Florida and an area in Georgia. The panhandle of Texas will be under water for two years.

All of the continents which border the Pacific will be affected by tidal waves because of eruptions of volcanoes in the ocean. The French nuclear tests created a seven-mile long crack in the crust at the bottom of the ocean. These people are crazy folks, absolutely crazy. We know how to destroy ourselves...We have that down to a science. We don't need to be testing these, we can't use them anyway.

There is a possibility that between 1996 and 1997, one third of Japan is going to sink below the surface of the ocean. The Kobe earthquake was manufactured, because the Japanese government will not sell its people out to the New World Order. They will not make their people take an implant. They are being made an example of. Economically, the Japanese are tough, but they don't turn on their own people.

Between 2007 and 2009, if it is allowed to happen naturally, we are supposed to have a 17 degree pole shift. Saudi Arabia is supposed to become the new North Pole, which is great. Bury those oil fields nice and deep. We will have free energy by then, anyway. North America is supposed to be on the equator.

Yesterday is ashes, Tomorrow wood. Only today does the fire burn brightly.

Could you tell us about what's so special about us. Why do the extraterrestrials want to control us?

We have the ability - each one of us - even though we may not feel like it, on a spiritual level, to time travel, to create anything without technology. The reason we can do that is because of who we are and because of our extremes of emotion. According to the Andromedans, it is the male aspect of ourselves that creates the thought and the feminine aspect of ourselves that makes things manifest through emotion. Now, third density is incredibly dense and a lot of extraterrestrial races don't like to hang out here. The best example I could give about density resistance is if you moved your hand through a bathtub of Jello. That's how third density is viewed by those not here. The Andromendans say that proof of how awesome humans are is demonstrated by the fact that we can literally create this third density. As slow as third density is, our intent can literally create anything here. The Andromedans cannot do this without technology. This world we live on, each one of us help to create it. It literally is us, and we are it. We are literally one. We created this place. They don't understand why we would want to destroy it.

There are two schools of thought in our galaxy. There are the regressives, who are races that carry fear and because of that want to control others. The hierarchy of the regressives starts with a group from Alpha Draconis. The Andromedans have no idea where the Alpha Draconians came from, but what they have learned through interaction with other interdimensional races is that somebody brought the Draconians to this universe and "dumped" them in the Alpha Draconis system, where they had the highest probability of survival. According to the Andromedans, the Alpha Draconians have had space travel for 4 billion years. They are an incredible race and have achieved great things, but they are bullies. They are jerks, and that's a judgement - I'm taking that judgement myself. That's my judgement based on what I know about them. The Draconians do not like human beings. The Andromedans say that Draconians believe that this universe was here for them - that their history teaches them that they were left here to rule it. But, when they started traveling, they ran across other races. They were able to conquer many of those races through genetic manipulation.

Now, our government, the United States government, the New World Order - whatever you want to call it - wants to implant everybody. From the Andromedan perspective that means ownership. Extraterrestrials don't want to bother with that stuff, since that is not permanent. Extraterrestrials value genetics. What they do is they come in, conquer a race and genetically alter it. From that moment on, that race is genetically altered, changing the frequency, sound and thought patterns of the race if they move into a physical form. The best example concerns the Greys. Apparently, the Greys were much more human-looking at one time. What happened was that they, as a race, were captured 891,000 years ago while leaving Zeta I and Zeta II to go off and do their own thing. This is very common, and it is how Earth became colonized. What happened is that they got captured by a group in Orion that was already genetically altered and under control of the Alpha Draconians, According to

Defending Sacred Ground: The Andromedan Compendium
Edited by Valdamar Valerian - the Leading Edge Research Group

Defending Sacred Ground has Alex Collier putting it all on the line, so that those of you interested in this paradigm can experience the Andromedan Perspective by reading, studying and contemplating the truth that flows off each page. Keeping the goal of a well presented compendium in mind, Valerian took on the responsibility to explore and assemble all in one package, without reservation or suppression, the vital facts and concepts as presented by Alex Collier.

When the idea of writing a book detailing the Andromedan Perspective was first considered, Defending Sacred Ground was one title suggested by Moraney. After more than a year of work and hundreds of hours of loving labor, in cooperation with Alex Collier and assistance by Letters From Andromeda, the production of the 250 page first volume is completed. It covering a thorough analysis of the Andromedan paradigm by exploring a vast assortment of lectures, workshops, and interviews that express the truthful and timely information brought forth by the Andromedans between the years of 1988 and 1997. The very process of editing the book resulted in a Master index of more than 730 line-items.

For your consideration, here is some of the vital information that could well change your outlook on life. Included in this work you will find the transcript from the six-hour Dallas workshop, lectures on ET's and the Global Connection, the 1996 Global Sciences Conference update, the November 1997 American Gnostic School in Yelm, WA where 1300 people attended, and three interviews with Alex done by the Leading Edge Research. An assortment of material from the audio tape Series I & II, covering topics from Leadership, our relationship with The Isness, New Density Formation, dealing with the Current Social Crisis, the high-impact historical aspects of Human Physiology and Genetics, lectures on the Greys and Earths Agenda, Our Solar System and Earths Future, Current Moon Bases and Their History, with other material on Weather Modification, Engineering Technology, Secret Colonies on Mars, the Creation of the Universe, Holographic Record of Christianity, and the Changing Consciousness. Diagrams include 13 maps showing base locations on both sides of the moon, maps of underground facilities in the United States and around the world. And all throughout the book are many sections of detailed questions and answers from the various lectures and workshops.

This book is for those who are determined to seek out the keys that unlock the many secrets that lead to self-responsibility to ourselves and to each other. Moraney will personally be handed a copy of this book at the earliest opportunity.

Letters From Andromeda Order Form

Video Tapes

USA/nonUSA

_____V1 - "Extraterrestrial Overview: Andromedan Perspective" US$25.00/$27.50
Alex participates in a question and answer interview where he covers many topics relating to Andromedan perspectives. This includes the Greys, Draconians, government cover-up, and enslavement, and 4th and 5th density shifts. (2 Hr)

_____V2 - "The Federal Reserve and the Executive Orders" US$12.00/$14.50
Alex discusses some of the Federal Orders that have been passed that have the effect of removing from the population, and also discusses just what kind of actions are going on regarding the government agenda to enslave the people. (30 min)

_____V3 - "Dallas Workshop - 1996" US$50.00/$57.50
This video covers a broad range of Andromedan perspectives. It is this workshop that the first major transcript covering the Andromedan perspective in The Leading Edge International Research Journal originated. The material in the Leading Edge was subsequently reprinted in Nexus Magazine. (3 tapes, 5-1/2 Hr)

_____V4 - "Moon and Mars" US$25.00/$25.50
This lecture includes a slide show of photographs showing many of the artificial structures on both planetary bodies which the Andromedans have pointed out to Alex. (2 Hr)

_____V5 - "At the Ranch" US$35.00/$37.50
A gathering at the American Gnostic School before an audience of 1,300 highly informed people, who later asked some very profound questions. (2 tapes, 3 Hr)

_____V6 - "Andromedan Update" US$25.00/$27.50
A follow-up lecture to Moon & Mars where Alex shares new slides focusing on Venus and Mercury, showing artificial structures and mining machines abandoned by other species, while sharing up-to-date Andromedan perspectives...Great companion video to V4. (2 Hr)

_____V7 - "1996 Star Vision Conference" US$15.00/$17.50
Short but very intense video that puts a lot of topics "on the line" in regard to individual responsibility and "talking one's walk"!

Moraney, the first thing this Draconian-altered Orion group did was slaughter almost all of the females of the captured race in order to control the birth process. They then genetically altered the remaining females, so that all the children born after that were genetically altered. The males were enslaved, made to work in mines and slaughtered by the Draconian-controlled Orion group, who had already absolutely no regard for life, What we know now as the Greys became a natural resource.

Now I'm told that the Greys would love to be absolutely free of this hierarchy, but what they have done is that they have continued to propagate the problem. Now, we have been told that the Greys "have been here for thousands of years." According to the Andromedans, however, the Greys got here in 1931. Because of their ability to time travel, it looks like they have been here thousands of years - they can go backwards in time. If you can go backwards in time you can literally alter the consciousness of any race. You can alter any event. That's exactly what they have done. They are not the only ones who have done this. There is also a group from Sirius B who have also done this. It took me a long time to understand why it was that they wanted to do this. The bottom line is that they wanted to control us. We have things that they want. We have the benefit of having been on 11th density, which means that we have covered a very large area of spiritual evolvement - which is why our range of emotion is so large. They want that information. Not only that, but with the new frequency coming in and third density beginning to implode in itself, the Greys are trying to save their race. They want our genetics.

You can't depend on your eyes when your imagination is out of focus.

What is the Andromedan perspective regarding our belief systems?

I have asked a lot of questions about Earth, religions and our history. Moraney has this really great way of mirroring back my questions. One of the things that he mirrored back to me was a question regarding the history of a particular religion. His response to that was "it is not so much what you believe in, but why you believe it." I have had to look at that, and I've had to go back and look at all the belief systems I have. Are they really mine, or are they something that I have been fed that I believe is true, and I am basing my perceptions on the idea that they are or are not true? Another time, I was feeling depressed, and I had a contact and I decided I didn't want to come back to Earth. I was made to come back, and I was very upset about that. As I was walking away, Vasais looked at me and said, "Alex, the love that you withhold is the pain you carry." There is not a day that goes by that I don't think about that - that I don't look at every decision I make and try to get crystal clear about why I'm making that decision, and where that decision is coming from inside of me. Another time, I was talking with Moraney and he asked me, Alex when you are having a relationship, where does the love come from? When your are having a relationship with your family, where does that love come from? When you are having a relationship with the universe, where does that love come from? Well. the obvious answer is that it comes from me, which is what I said to him. He turned back to me and asked me why do you then believe you have a shortage of love in your life? Again, it all goes back to belief systems, If they are right, we created all of this to watch how our thoughts can create matter. So, in essence, everything is a belief system.

What do the Andromedans call our universe?

The Andromedans call our universe consciousness. They say that consciousness is the space that you create in which to evolve. So, in other words, to continue to evolve we had to create a space in which to do it. That is physicality. There is a physicality on each and every dimension. Fifth density is not filled with "whispering clouds." There is a genuine physicality to it. It's a lot different than what we have created here but nevertheless it is still a physicality.
